Updates:	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Positive Behavior Support Corporation, presents, their first annual "First Coast Home and Community Conference." Shared about the success of the conference. The will be more information come about next year's conference. Dewecee Ogden, Medicaid Program Analyst, updated about behavioral analysis services and provider enrollment. ABA providers should enroll by 1st qtr of next year Selena Webster-Bass shared about an upcoming presentation on the results of the implementation task force on mental health. Mentioned very important conversation not just for younger children, but young adults. Unlocking the Pieces: Community Mental Health in Northeast Florida, December 7, 2016. Jax-Youth Council has met in July and November of this year. First was a meet and greet for the youth to get to know each and decide what they want the council to look like/stand for. Second meeting was to begin a plan of action. Target: Angel Tree and newsletter. Dental Services for Intellectual and Developmentally Disabled: A committee of several providers are moving closer towards providing dental services for the ID/DD population. Dr. Gibbs and Dr. Garvey found a grant that would allow them to partner with IM Sulzbacher Center for Homeless to train dental residents to care for the ID/DD patients, hopefully securing more dental services. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Presentation will be available to distribute to the NEFL HATS Coalition Flyer/Information will be available to distribute to the NEFL HATS Coalition 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Shane Spiker, PBS Corp. AGENDA/TOPIC	DISCUSSION	RECOMMENDATION/ACTIONS	RESPONSIBLE	FOLLOW-UP
	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • JaxHATS and the NEFL Medical Legal Partnership presented at the 17th Annual Disability and Illness Conference/8th Annual Health Care Transition Research Consortium. The presentation was: Bridging the Gaps in Health Care Transition through Collaboration with a Medical Legal Partnership. • JaxHATS went to a Statewide Medical Legal Partnership Conference where several topics to benefit the young adults with special health needs were up for advocacy/discussion. • FL HATS: Update web-training on AHEC website. Free CME for: health care providers and allied health providers. Update should be this year. • FL HATS WEBINAR: December 8, 2016: South Florida HATS Providers Needs Assessment. The information is located on the FL HATS website. • Strategic collaboration with education providers: teachers, educators will be introduced on the health care transition model and how it works with the education, such as IEP's. FL Dept of Education will offer training credits/making it available to all teachers. • If there's a need for reprints of the three advocacy books/materials for distribution to the community (411 on Insurance, 10 Steps to Successful Health Care Transition and When You're 18), Janet will try to restock according to what is available, but just let her know if needed. 		<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Dr. Rita Nathawad • Dr. Rita Nathawad • Janet Hess, Florida HATS • Janet Hess, Florida HATS • Janet Hess, Florida HATS • Janet Hess, Florida HATS
Strategic Plan	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Current Strategic Plan includes long term goals for coalition, decision made by group to focus on one action item per year. • The main objective for each year will be driven by the consensus of the NEFL HATS Coalition to engage in a yearly community initiative. • This year's initiative would involve the discussion, planning and implementation of a Youth/Young Adult with Special Health Care Needs Symposium (youth driven/inspired) to address the needs of this population and also provide community awareness/advocacy. Outlook for Summer 2017. 		<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • NEFL HATS Coalition • NEFL HATS Coalition 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Chanda Jones/Shane Spiker/Dr. Rita Nathawad
